WHY THE TABLE ALTAR FOR EUCHARIST THIS SUMMER? Just as we get renewed with the change to the long days and warm temperatures of summer, so too our worship life can benefit from a liturgical change for a time. A different word, a change in our body positions, or in the music we sing sharpens our awareness in the moment. It may feel odd or even uncomfortable initially for some. For others it may be a nice surprise. I ask that we enter into the experience and consider what we are feeling and thinking, and why. Then attend in the same way to how it feels and what we are thinking when we return to the fixed altar in September.
